

KINGDOM CAPITAL NETWORK

Our Mission

We exist to equip small business owners with Kingdom Capital for renewal of the city.

Our Vision

A life-giving ecosystem of Kingdom-minded businesses

Our Beliefs

People are at the heart of every small business.

God cares about business and chooses to utilize work as a primary way to advance His Kingdom.

Sustainable, healthy, and growing businesses are necessary to improve communities and promote human flourishing.

Small businesses have the greatest ability to scale and find solutions to micro & macro issues in the world.

“Since the very beginning KCN has challenged me to advocate for myself and my business. I never thought God cared about my work. And now I see God cares and wants to be welcomed in everything we do.”

- Chelcee Davis Hicks, Cohort 2

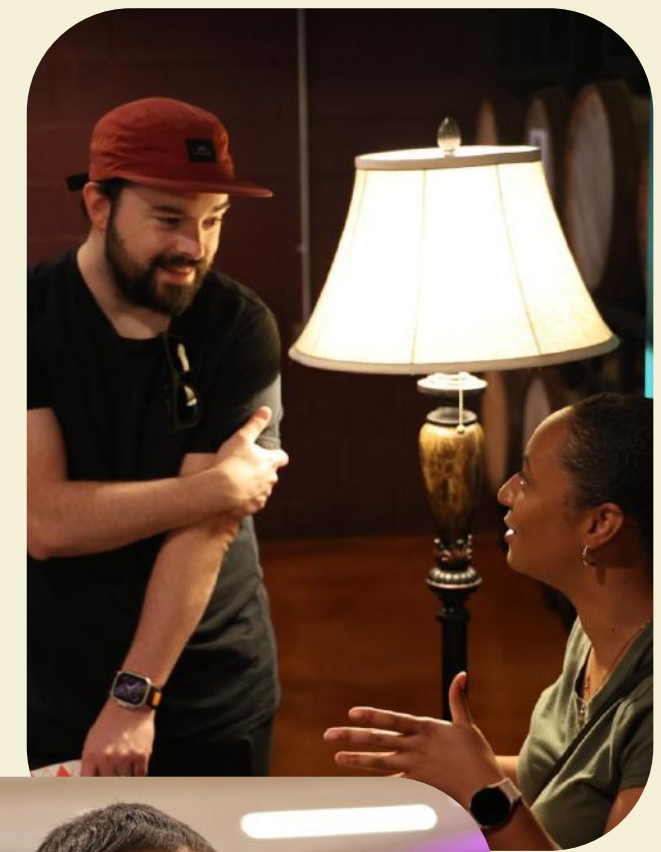

Our Roots

Minority small business owners struggled acutely in Covid-19.

A diverse group of faith leaders and professionals came together in Austin and asked

Can the Church come together and provide support for these small businesses to be the hands of feet of Christ in the marketplace?

The Church in Austin Unified

We saw the opportunity to support church members in their work as a core component to exercising our Christian faith.

It also provided a direct way to support and serve marginalized members of our communities

We desire to step in as the “friends & family” of small business owners whose communities have historically lacked connection to accessible resources and funding.

Kingdom Capital Network has encouraged me to redeem, renew, and restore humanity through entrepreneurship.”

- Michael Hicks, Owner of Frozen Panther Food Truck

How do we serve our Business Owners?

Kingdom Capital is a holistic approach to helping business owners grow. We provide them with “RISE Capital”, or capital that’s Relational, Intellectual, Spiritual and Economic.

Relational Capital

Relational Capital

KCN businesses are introduced and connected to fellow Christian business owners within the cohort and in network (alums) across various industries.

Participating business owners are thoughtfully matched with a local mentor. These mentors are active members of local churches and leverage their business acumen to serve cohort participants.

Intellectual Capital

KCN partners with Economic Growth Business Incubator (EGBI) to provide business courses to help KCN members become more adept business owners.

Spiritual Capital

KCN business owners participate in a 9-month cohort engaging in spiritual formation content and homework around faith & work.

Why Work Matters To God:
Biblical, intrinsic value of work.

Work Shapes You:
Work & Sanctification.
God's work in us through work.

Vibrant Spirituality:
Cultivating character that sustains Kingdom Work.

God At Work: God's story of work. The beginning, corruption, and redemption of work.

Redemptive Work:
Joining God's Kingdom at your work. Three ways to work (Praxis).

Ethical Work:
Aligning your work with God's character & holiness.

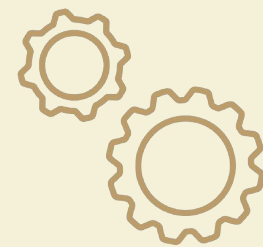

Economic Capital

KCN functions as an urban American microlending program and partners with Business & Community Lenders (BCL), a 501c3 and registered CDFI, to underwrite and administer all loans.

Loan Terms

- Up to $50k depending on business needs
- Typically a 5-year payback term
- Lower interest rate: PRIME rate at the start of the cohort

Loan Default

We communicate our grace-based approach up front: business owners can struggle and even fail where relationship and ongoing engagement in their faith community is maintained without fear of loss of collateral.
